

THE PARING

THE PARING SYRAH 2017:

Delivering all that makes this grape so superb: sweet fruit, exotic spice and powerful structure. A dark, brooding and savory wine that pairs perfectly with almost everything.

MATT DEES' WINEMAKER NOTES:

Classic Syrah aromas of violets, blackberries and cracked black pepper. Perfect balance between dark fruit sweetness and savory earthiness. Plush and soft then structured and powerful, but refined enough to enjoy today. All that makes Syrah such a legendary grape. Shockingly sophisticated wine.

91 POINTS

"The 2017 Syrah is one of the real gems in this range from The Paring. Inky blue/purplish fruit, lavender, menthol, licorice and black pepper meld together effortlessly. Dark and sumptuous, with tremendous character, the Syrah is a huge overachiever in its price range. Then again, all of this fruit is from the Jonata estate."

94 POINTS

"A blend of 94% Syrah, 5% Petite Sirah, and a splash of Viognier, the 2017 Syrah gives up a terrific bouquet of blackberries, plums, ground pepper, and meaty, earthy notes to go with a medium to full-bodied, plump, sexy style on the palate. It's beautifully done and a stunning value. Drink it over the coming 4-5 years or so. Readers looking for a great Syrah at a great price should snatch this up."
