

TARRAWARRA

ESTATE

1979	1981	1983	1984	1986	1988	1996	1999	2003	2006	2016	2017	2021	2022	2023
400 hectare beef breeding property TarraWarra purchased by Marc and Eva Besen from Vasey Houghton	Hunter Valley winemaker David Wollan joins TarraWarra	Plantings of 4.6 hectares of Chardonnay	Plantings of 1.78 hectares of Pinot Noir	Winery building completed for first vintage	First vintage of 1986 released, TarraWarra Chardonnay sells for $26	Clare Halloran and Vineyard Manager Stuart Sissins join TarraWarra	TarraWarra wins International Pinot Noir Trophy at the London wine challenge for the second time	Alan Powell designed TarraWarra restaurant and cellar door open	First grafting of Merlot and other varieties on the property	Dedicated underground cellar door designed by Kerstin Thompson Architects (KTA) opens	Winner 2017 AIA Victorian chapter - commercial architecture - KTA Winner excellence in construction of commercial buildings - Four Sq	Included in The Real Review Top 20 wineries Clare Halloran & Adam McCallum announced as finalists in the Gourmet Wine Magazine "Winemaker of the Year Award"	Chef Joel Alderice leads the restaurant to a chef's hat in the 2023 Good Food Guide Awards	Viticulturist, Ray Guerin commences with TarraWarra to support our vineyard endeavours. Sarah Fagan is appointed winemaker

'TarraWarra' is a Woiwurrung word that translates approximately as 'slow moving water' and is the name given to the area in which the Estate is located within.

Vineyard 62.4 acres / 26 hectares.
Vineyard stretches 3km from block A to Watt's Point.